WHEREAS, building public trust in our Nation's police forces is essential for public safety in the 21st century;

WHEREAS, Major Cities Chiefs have been committed to the tenets of community policing and have sought to advance these concepts for decades; and

WHEREAS, every Chief and every officer should strive to earn and maintain the confidence and support of the communities we are sworn to serve;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Major Cities Chiefs Association:

1. Fully endorse and support the recommendations of the President's Task Force on 21st Century Policing,
2. To support objective and impartial research to determine how police forces and communities can establish and maintain a relationship built on trust and understanding
3. To encourage member agencies to adopt cutting-edge programs that provide transparent oversight, involve the community in crime reduction efforts, provide the necessary training and education for officers throughout their careers, and to address pressing officer safety and wellness efforts.

Adopted by the Membership, June 3, 2015
Phoenix, Arizona
