

MAJOR CITIES CHIEFS ASSOCIATION

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 27, 2020

MAJOR CITIES CHIEFS ASSOCIATION (MCCA) STATEMENT REGARDING THE DEATH OF GEORGE FLOYD

The death of Mr. Floyd is deeply disturbing and should be of concern to all Americans.

The officers' actions are inconsistent with the training and protocols of our profession and MCCA commends Minneapolis Police Chief Medaria Arradondo for his swift and decisive action to terminate the employment of the officers involved.

MCCA members have worked tirelessly to build trust between law enforcement and the communities they serve. What occurred in Minneapolis is a sobering reminder of how quickly bad policing can undermine that trust. The law enforcement community must do better and hold ourselves to a higher standard.

We extend our deepest condolences to the Floyd family and will lift them up in prayer during this difficult time.

###

The Major Cities Chiefs Association (MCCA) is a professional organization of police executives representing the largest cities in the United States and Canada. The MCCA provides a unique forum for urban chiefs, sheriffs and other law enforcement executives to share ideas, experiences and strategies. MCCA provides a collaborative forum for the advancement of public safety through innovation, research, policy development, government engagement, community outreach, and leadership development.

Contact: Chief Art Acevedo, Houston Police Department
President, Major Cites Chiefs Association
(713) 308-3200