

MAJOR CITIES CHIEFS ASSOCIATION

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 6, 2021

STATEMENT FROM MAJOR CITIES CHIEFS ASSOCIATION (MCCA)

The insurrection unfolding in Washington, DC is an affront to our democracy and those involved must be held accountable to the fullest extent of the law.

Provocative statements and misinformation about our democratic election has incited violence and usurped a Constitutional process. It is shameful and should be condemned by every American.

What we are witnessing in Washington, DC must not be replicated in other areas and we encourage our local, state and federal law enforcement partners to work together to ensure the safety and security of our communities.

The MCCA supports the work of our member colleague, Chief Robert Contee, and the men and women of the DC Metropolitan Police Department as they work to ensure a peaceful transition of power.
