

MAJOR CITIES CHIEFS ASSOCIATION

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 15, 2021

STATEMENT ON CHIEF ACEVEDO

As an MCCA member agency, the Association will continue to support the Miami Police Department as they navigate this tumultuous time. Chief Acevedo has been part of the Association for 14 years, served in various leadership capacities and has made countless contributions. We wish him the best in his next chapter.

MCCA President, Chief Jeri Williams said, “Under the leadership of Chief Acevedo, the MCCA has grown tremendously, and he is deserving of our thanks and appreciation for his many years of service. Chief Acevedo is not just a colleague, he is a friend and I know we will all miss having him at the table.”

###

The Major Cities Chiefs Association (MCCA) is a professional organization of police executives representing the largest cities in the United States and Canada. The MCCA provides a unique forum for urban chiefs, sheriffs and other law enforcement executives to share ideas, experiences and strategies. MCCA provides a collaborative forum for the advancement of public safety through innovation, research, policy development, government engagement, community outreach, and leadership development.

Contact: Laura Cooper, Executive Director, cooper@majorcitieschiefs.com